GURUGRAM, India, Apr 4, 2023 - (ACN Newswire) - LawSikho, one of India's leading online ed-tech brands, has been ranked as the number one legal ed-tech startup in the world, following latest research by Tracxn, the analytics and market intelligence platform. LawSikho, a pioneer in the legal ed-tech space, is a bootstrapped startup, and was ranked higher than funded legal ed-tech companies in the US and the UK by employee count and number of students, as well as by revenue.

LawSikho catered to over 9500 learners in the 2022 calendar year, and achieved almost US$6 million in revenues, by annualized run rate, as of February 2023. Gurugram-based LawSikho was earlier named "Best LegalTech Company of the Year" at the [3rd Edition] Technology Excellence Awards 2023, by Quantic India in New Delhi on March 10. The award recognized LawSikho's contribution to the legal industry through its innovative and effective use of technology in legal education. LawSikho's legal-tech has changed the education landscape, bridging the gaps in online classes, and creating extraordinary lawyers with exceptional legal acumen.

"The growth of LawSikho has been fueled by two trends, 'Learn & Earn', and remote work. However being at the forefront of the legal ed-tech industry comes with responsibilities.
