Avalara, Inc., a leading provider of cloud-based tax compliance automation, elaborated the role of ASP in GST compliance in the Times GST Expo & Summit Pune. The one-day conference received an overwhelming response, attended by esteemed dignitaries' i.e Rajesh Pandey, Addl DG, Directorate Gen (GST General) Pune and Rajiv Mitra, MD Govind Milk.

Avalara has a well-defined technology road-map to simplify GST for businesses. Avalara ensured to inculcate knowledge and understanding around the basic mechanism of GST & GST return filing and compliance. The event also provided a platform to collaborate, exchange learnings and discuss enablement impact regarding the roll-out of GST compliance by ASP.

To help businesses secure tax compliance under the new rules Avalara has been named an Application Service Provider (ASP), partnering with authorized GST Suvidha Providers (GSPs) in India.

In the opening presentation, CA Harshad Shinde, Product Manager, GST India spoke upon 'The Role of ASP in GST compliance. He highlighted the role of automation in GST Compliance and also provided insights into how Avalara's GST solution is well suited to meet the complex environments with real time processing. In the same session, William Rau, Sr. Director, Engineering for Avalara provided attendees with a checklist of attributes they should look for in a great ASP, including a strong security and reliable team, a solid history of delivering SaaS based taxation solutions, and a demonstrated ability to handle the high transaction volumes that GST compliance will require.

Following the opening session, authorities from various governmental and non-governmental organizations fielded queries and provided perspectives to "unlock the gamma
